

N. 48

Claim No 48.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 17th June. 1800.
with Creek Indians.

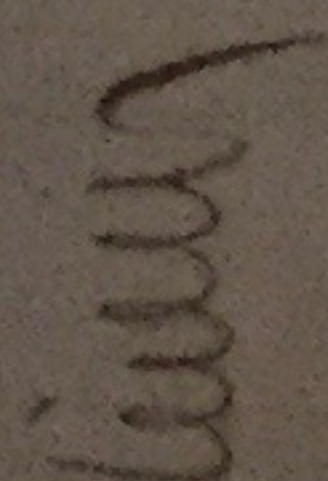

For Kernell

The undersigned, <sup>aged 42.</sup> Grace Colonel, a Freed-woman, now the wife of George Lowry, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, a loyal Refugee, being duly examined and sworn, (She understanding and conversing in the English language.) deposes and says: Whilst living at her home, near the Creek Agency, and sometime in the month of November 1862, (being then unmarried.) She was driven away therefrom by the Rebels under Colonel McIntosh, and was compelled to fly in haste, and abandon her property and household effects to the enemy.
That at the time of her flight she owned and possessed and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property hereinafter enumerated, and she has never since recovered the same, or any part thereof: to say:

Seven (7) Hogs.	average value $3 each	$ 21.00
Forty (40) Chickens.	" 25¢ "	10.00
House furniture, Bed, Bedding &c	-	30.00

Making a total value of $ 61.00.
Sixty one dollars. Further this deponent saith
not. -

I Do solemnly

Swear. At Sup. Dist. Supt. Ind. Affs.

Southth Super. Sec.

The undersigned, Jim Colonel, and Snow Tello, both Freedmen of the Creek Nation & Loyal Refugees, being jointly, duly examined and sworn, (they understanding and conversing in the English language,) do depose and say: they are not interested in the claim of Grace Colonel in any pecuniary manner whatever: that they have heard the foregoing affidavit read to them, and know its contents, and that the same is correct and true. And these deponents further say: at the time stated by the said Grace in her deposition, she did, to their own knowledge, own and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property therein enumerated, and in the manner stated by her. Further, these deponents do not say.

Jim Colonel,
Snow Tello.

Claim #48

Jim Colonel

Award.

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however is in some instances considered excessive. Upon inquiry it is found, the values of the different kinds of property at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Hogs. $2.00 Each.

Chickens. - .12½ "

and for the following, one-half the claimed value:-

House furniture; - beds, bedding &c. - $15.00

In consideration of these and all other facts attainable bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Grace Colonel thirty four dollars:-

100
